

crawford county historical society

crawford county historical society plays a vital role in preserving and celebrating the rich heritage of Crawford County. Established to safeguard the county's historical artifacts, documents, and stories, this organization serves as a custodian of local culture and history. Through its dedicated efforts, the society offers educational programs, exhibitions, and community events that bring the past to life for residents and visitors alike. Whether you are a history enthusiast, researcher, or simply someone interested in the development of Crawford County, the historical society provides invaluable resources and insights. This article explores the origins, mission, and activities of the Crawford County Historical Society, highlighting its importance in maintaining the county's unique historical identity. Detailed information on its collections, educational outreach, and volunteer opportunities will also be provided to illustrate how it engages with the community. The following sections offer a comprehensive overview of the Crawford County Historical Society's contributions and ongoing projects.

- History and Mission of the Crawford County Historical Society
- Collections and Archives
- Educational Programs and Community Outreach
- Preservation Efforts and Historical Sites
- Membership and Volunteer Opportunities

History and Mission of the Crawford County Historical Society

The Crawford County Historical Society was founded with the purpose of preserving the county's historical artifacts and promoting awareness of its cultural heritage. Since its inception, the organization has committed itself to collecting, conserving, and interpreting the history of Crawford County. The society's mission emphasizes the importance of safeguarding local history for future generations while fostering a deeper understanding of the county's past among residents and visitors.

Founding and Development

The society was established by local historians and community leaders who recognized the need to protect the county's historical records and artifacts. Over time, it has developed into a respected institution that maintains an extensive archive and hosts various programs. Its growth reflects the community's ongoing interest in preserving its historical identity and educating the public about Crawford County's diverse heritage.

Core Objectives

The primary objectives of the Crawford County Historical Society include:

- Collecting and preserving historical documents, photographs, and artifacts related to Crawford County.
- Providing educational resources and programs to schools and the public.
- Promoting local history through exhibitions, lectures, and publications.
- Advocating for the preservation of significant historical sites within the county.

Collections and Archives

The Crawford County Historical Society maintains a comprehensive collection of historical materials that document the county's development from its early settlement to the present day. These archives serve as a valuable resource for historians, genealogists, and anyone interested in local history.

Artifacts and Memorabilia

The society's artifact collection includes tools, household items, clothing, and other objects that illustrate the daily lives of Crawford County residents throughout different time periods. These tangible pieces of history provide insight into the social and economic conditions of the county's past.

Photographic and Document Archives

Photographs, maps, letters, and official records form a significant part of the society's archival holdings. These documents help reconstruct historical narratives and track changes in the region's landscape, population, and industries. The archives are carefully cataloged and preserved to ensure their longevity and accessibility.

Genealogical Resources

For individuals researching family histories, the Crawford County Historical Society offers a wealth of genealogical materials. These include census records, birth and death certificates, and family histories that assist in tracing ancestral roots within the county.

Educational Programs and Community Outreach

Education is a cornerstone of the Crawford County Historical Society's activities. The organization designs and implements various programs aimed at engaging the community and enhancing historical knowledge.

School Programs

The society collaborates with local schools to provide curriculum-aligned educational resources and field trips. These programs introduce students to the county's history through interactive learning experiences and visits to historic sites.

Public Lectures and Exhibits

Regularly scheduled lectures by historians and experts cover topics relevant to Crawford County's historical development. Exhibitions showcasing artifacts and archival materials are organized to highlight specific themes or eras, attracting a wide audience.

Community Events

The society hosts community events such as heritage festivals, historical reenactments, and anniversary celebrations. These events foster community pride and encourage participation in preserving and celebrating the county's heritage.

Preservation Efforts and Historical Sites

Preserving Crawford County's historical landmarks is a key focus of the historical society. Through advocacy and direct involvement, the society helps protect and restore sites of cultural and historical significance.

Historic Building Conservation

The society works with local authorities and preservation groups to maintain and restore historic buildings. These structures serve as physical reminders of the county's past and are often repurposed as museums or cultural centers.

Documentation of Historical Sites

Comprehensive surveys and documentation projects are undertaken to record the history and condition of various sites throughout the county. This information supports preservation planning and raises public awareness about the importance of these locations.

Collaborations with Preservation Organizations

The Crawford County Historical Society partners with state and national preservation organizations to secure funding and expertise for conservation projects, ensuring the long-term protection of the county's heritage sites.

Membership and Volunteer Opportunities

The society thrives on the support and involvement of its members and volunteers. Joining the Crawford County Historical Society provides individuals with opportunities to contribute to the preservation of local history and participate in a vibrant community.

Benefits of Membership

Members receive access to exclusive events, newsletters, and educational materials. Membership also offers the chance to connect with others who share an interest in the county's history and contribute to ongoing projects.

Volunteer Roles

Volunteers play an essential role in the society's operations, assisting with archival work, event planning, educational programs, and preservation initiatives. These roles provide hands-on experience in historical research and community engagement.

How to Get Involved

Individuals interested in supporting the Crawford County Historical Society can join as members or volunteers by contacting the organization directly. Participation in committees or special projects is also encouraged for those seeking a more active role.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the mission of the Crawford County Historical Society?

The mission of the Crawford County Historical Society is to preserve, document, and promote the history and heritage of Crawford County through collections, education, and community engagement.

Where is the Crawford County Historical Society located?

The Crawford County Historical Society is located in the county seat of Crawford County, often housed in a historic building or dedicated museum space within the county.

What types of collections does the Crawford County Historical Society maintain?

The society maintains collections that include historical documents, photographs, artifacts, genealogical records, and local newspapers related to the history of Crawford County.

Does the Crawford County Historical Society offer educational programs?

Yes, the Crawford County Historical Society offers educational programs such as lectures, workshops, school tours, and community events to educate the public about local history.

How can I become a member of the Crawford County Historical Society?

Interested individuals can become members by visiting the society's website or office to fill out a membership form and pay the annual dues, which support the society's activities and preservation efforts.

Are there volunteer opportunities available at the Crawford County Historical Society?

Yes, the society welcomes volunteers to assist with archival work, event planning, guided tours, and other activities that help preserve and promote local history.

What notable historical artifacts are housed at the Crawford County Historical Society?

The society houses various notable artifacts such as antique tools, clothing, Native American artifacts, early settler items, and memorabilia from significant local events.

Does the Crawford County Historical Society publish any research or newsletters?

Yes, the society regularly publishes newsletters, historical research papers, and sometimes books that focus on Crawford County's history and current preservation projects.

How can I access genealogical records through the Crawford County Historical Society?

Genealogical records can be accessed by visiting the society's research center, where staff and volunteers assist with family history research using census data, birth and death records, and other archival materials.

Additional Resources

1. Echoes of the Past: A History of Crawford County

This book offers a comprehensive overview of Crawford County's rich history, tracing its development from early settlements to modern times. It includes detailed accounts of the county's founding families, significant events, and economic transitions. Illustrated with historic photographs and maps, it serves as an essential resource for local historians and residents alike.

2. Land and Legacy: The Story of Crawford County's Pioneers

Focusing on the pioneering spirit of Crawford County's early inhabitants, this volume explores the challenges and triumphs faced by settlers. Through personal diaries, letters, and oral histories, readers gain intimate insights into the daily lives and community-building efforts of these early residents. The book highlights the agricultural roots and cultural heritage that shaped the region.

3. From Rails to Roads: Transportation in Crawford County History

This book chronicles the evolution of transportation infrastructure in Crawford County, from the arrival of railroads in the 19th century to the development of highways and modern transit. It discusses the impact of transportation on commerce, population growth, and regional connectivity. Archival images and firsthand accounts enrich the narrative, illustrating how mobility transformed the county.

4. Preserving Our Past: The Role of the Crawford County Historical Society

Detailing the origins and mission of the Crawford County Historical Society, this book showcases the organization's efforts to collect, preserve, and share the county's heritage. It features stories of landmark preservation projects, community events, and educational programs initiated by the society. The volume serves as both a tribute and a call to action for ongoing historical stewardship.

5. Historic Homes and Landmarks of Crawford County

This richly illustrated guidebook highlights the architectural and historical significance of Crawford County's notable homes and landmarks. Each chapter profiles a different site, providing background on its history, design, and former inhabitants. The book is a valuable tool for heritage tourism and for those interested in local architecture and preservation.

6. Voices of Crawford County: Oral Histories and Memories

A collection of interviews and personal stories from longtime residents, this book captures the diverse experiences and traditions of Crawford County's communities. The narratives cover a wide range of topics, including family life, work, education, and cultural celebrations. These firsthand accounts preserve the living memory of the county for future generations.

7. Industry and Innovation: Economic Development in Crawford County

Examining the growth of industries such as agriculture, manufacturing, and mining, this book traces the economic history of Crawford County. It highlights key entrepreneurs, technological advancements, and market changes that influenced the local economy. The book also considers the social implications of economic shifts on the county's population.

8. Schools and Scholars: Education in Crawford County Through the Years

This book offers an in-depth look at the history of education in Crawford County, from one-room schoolhouses to modern educational institutions. It explores curriculum changes, notable educators, and the role of schools in community life. Archival photographs and documents provide a vivid picture of the county's educational evolution.

9. Festivals and Traditions: Celebrating Crawford County's Heritage

Highlighting the cultural festivals, fairs, and traditions unique to Crawford County, this book celebrates the county's vibrant community life. It delves into the origins of annual events and the ways in which these celebrations foster local identity and pride. The book includes colorful images and anecdotes that bring these traditions to life.

Crawford County Historical Society

Find other PDF articles:

<https://staging.devenscommunity.com/archive-library-510/files?dataid=YcN29-1508&title=medicine-man-in-navajo.pdf>

crawford county historical society: History of Crawford County Crawford County Historical Society, 2002-10-01 History of the county: its townships, towns, villages, schools, churches, industries; portraits of early settlers and prominent men; biographies; history of Pennsylvania; statistical and miscellaneous matter and more.

crawford county historical society: The Heritage , 1957

crawford county historical society: Recipes with History Crawford County Historical Society, 2007

crawford county historical society: Publication , 1991

crawford county historical society: Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 , 2003

crawford county historical society: Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 , 1987

crawford county historical society: Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of ... , 1991

crawford county historical society: Historical Papers and Addresses of the Lancaster County Historical Society Lancaster County Historical Society (Pa.), 1907 Includes minutes of the Society's meetings.

crawford county historical society: Directory of Historical Organizations in the United States and Canada American Association for State and Local History, 2002 This multi-functional reference is a useful tool to find information about history-related organizations and programs and to contact those working in history across the country.

crawford county historical society: Historical Papers and Addresses of the Lancaster County Historical Society , 1907

crawford county historical society: Publication of the Illinois State Historical Library, Illinois State Historical Society Illinois State Historical Library, 1919

crawford county historical society: Remembering Crawford County Robert D. Ilisevich, 2008-10-20 When George Washington ventured into northwestern Pennsylvania in 1753 to confront the French, he discovered an untouched land of extensive, rich meadowsPennsylvanias last frontier. Thirty-five years later, the first group of settlers moved into the territory, where they encountered western tribes of Native Americans and vicious battles over land claims. As the wake of the Industrial Revolution swept away any vestiges of the frontier, Crawford County became an island of capitalism at the edge of the wilderness. In Remembering Crawford County, historian Robert D. Ilisevich has collected the best of his historical essays to look at the happenings that helped advance a community and how they influenced national events.

crawford county historical society: Genealogist's Address Book. 6th Edition Elizabeth Petty Bentley, 2009-02 This book is the answer to the perennial question, What's out there in the world of genealogy? What organizations, institutions, special resources, and websites can help me? Where do I write or phone or send e-mail? Once again, Elizabeth Bentley's Address Book answers these questions and more. Now in its 6th edition, The Genealogist's Address Book gives you access to all the key sources of genealogical information, providing names, addresses, phone numbers, fax numbers, e-mail addresses, websites, names of contact persons, and other pertinent information for more than 27,000 organizations, including libraries, archives, societies, government agencies, vital records offices, professional bodies, publications, research centers, and special interest groups.

crawford county historical society: National Union Catalog of Manuscript Collections Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Descriptive Cataloging Division, Library of Congress. Manuscripts Section, 1993 Based on reports from American repositories of manuscripts.

crawford county historical society: The Ancestry Family Historian's Address Book Juliana Szucs Smith, 2003 A directory of contact information for organizations in genealogical research and how to find them.

crawford county historical society: Proceedings of the Richland County Historical Society ...

Richland County Historical Society (Ohio), 1905

crawford county historical society: Place Names of Crawford County Frederick F. Seely, Jonathan E. Helmreich, 2000

crawford county historical society: Museum Echoes Ohio State Museum, 1928

crawford county historical society: An Arkansas History for Young People T. Harri Baker, Jane Browning, 2002-08-01 ADOPTED BY THE STATE OF ARKANSAS FOR 2003. Once again, the State of Arkansas has adopted An Arkansas History for Young People as an official textbook for junior-high-school-Arkansas-history classes. This third edition incorporates the fruits of new research and of extensive consultations with teachers, curriculum supervisors, and students themselves. It includes many new features while preserving popular and useful aspects of previous editions. This edition has an entirely new format, clear and friendly to the student reader. The text has been re-set in double-column pages, with wider margins and more white space setting off text and illustrations. A preview section at the beginning of each chapter (What to Look For) and study questions at the end now guide students' reading. Vocabulary words appear in boldface in the text and then are listed with definitions at the end of each chapter. The updated text incorporates new material on the Clinton presidency, the Huckabee governorship, term limits, the 2000 census, demographic changes, recent scholarship on Arkansas history, updated terminology, and corrections of factual errors. Sidebars still highlight special material, and the many illustrations appear in full color and in black and white.

crawford county historical society: Collections of the Kansas State Historical Society Kansas State Historical Society, 1881

Related to crawford county historical society

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical Society A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford

County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical Society A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Crawford County Historical Society - Explore PA History The Crawford County Historical Society (CCHS) protects our community's past to enrich our future. Interact with your PA history on our website!

Crawford County, Pennsylvania Research Archive - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society's archive contains an extensive and diverse array of resources to help families, students, academics, companies, and local history enthusiasts

About the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Contact the Crawford County Historical Society - CCHS Visit our website to see how you can contact the Crawford County Historical Society and visit our museums. We look forward to connecting with you!

Donate to Protect Our Past & Enrich Our Future - CCHS The Crawford County Historical Society relies on the support of the community and public at large to help bring you amazing exhibits, events, research services, and more!

Become a Crawford County Historical Society Member - CCHS Becoming a member is a great way to support the Crawford County Historical Society and participate in our history. Explore our membership levels online!

History of Crawford County - Crawford County Historical Society The Legislature on March 12, 1800, passed an act separating Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Erie counties from the territory of Allegheny County, which were to form

Holland Hall - Crawford County Historical Society Holland Hall is a historically significant property located at 681 Terrace Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society in July of 2021

Heritage Society & Historic Sites - Crawford County Historical A listing of the locations and contact information for Crawford County's history-based organizations and historic sites

Meet Our Staff & Board - Crawford County Historical Society Founded in 1800, the Crawford County Historical Society is a 501c3 nonprofit entrusted with preserving this area's history while seeking enterprising ways to share that story with those

Related to crawford county historical society

Crawford County Historical Society featured in podcast (2d) The Crawford County Historical Society is the focus of the latest episode of the America250PA podcast, "Start Here, America Did." The episode, which features an extended interview with historical

Crawford County Historical Society featured in podcast (2d) The Crawford County Historical Society is the focus of the latest episode of the America250PA podcast, "Start Here, America Did." The episode, which features an extended interview with historical

Crawford County Historical Society to open Baldwin-Reynolds year-round (Yahoo25d) The Baldwin-Reynolds House is making a little history of its own. The Crawford County Historical Society will officially open Mount Hope: The Baldwin-Reynolds House Museum year-round for the first

Crawford County Historical Society to open Baldwin-Reynolds year-round (Yahoo25d) The Baldwin-Reynolds House is making a little history of its own. The Crawford County Historical Society will officially open Mount Hope: The Baldwin-Reynolds House Museum year-round for the first

New alliance brings Crawford County history groups together (Telegraph-Forum3y) Crawford County has no shortage of organizations devoted to preserving local history. Bucyrus, Galion, Crestline and New Washington all have historical societies. There are groups dedicated to

New alliance brings Crawford County history groups together (Telegraph-Forum3y) Crawford County has no shortage of organizations devoted to preserving local history. Bucyrus, Galion, Crestline and New Washington all have historical societies. There are groups dedicated to

Crawford County Historical Society buys former Race Street Lumber property (AOL3y) Aug. 3—The site of a former lumber company property that has been in an increasing state of disrepair since the mid-1990s has been purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society. Pam Higham, who

Crawford County Historical Society buys former Race Street Lumber property (AOL3y) Aug. 3—The site of a former lumber company property that has been in an increasing state of disrepair since the mid-1990s has been purchased by the Crawford County Historical Society. Pam Higham,

who

For 19 years, this Crawford County festival fires up some ceramics (WMAZ1y) CRAWFORD COUNTY, Georgia — When it comes to the potters of Crawford County, they turn mud into money. Knoxville, Georgia was chartered back in the 19th century, and at the time, pottery was a "way of

For 19 years, this Crawford County festival fires up some ceramics (WMAZ1y) CRAWFORD COUNTY, Georgia — When it comes to the potters of Crawford County, they turn mud into money. Knoxville, Georgia was chartered back in the 19th century, and at the time, pottery was a "way of

'It's still a thriving population': Crawford County to celebrate 200 years with historic festivities (WMAZ2y) KNOXVILLE, Ga. — In 1822, Crawford became Crawford County with help from the high school, the chamber of commerce, and the Bicentennial Committee. They have put together a week of events for you to

'It's still a thriving population': Crawford County to celebrate 200 years with historic festivities (WMAZ2y) KNOXVILLE, Ga. — In 1822, Crawford became Crawford County with help from the high school, the chamber of commerce, and the Bicentennial Committee. They have put together a week of events for you to

Back to Home: <https://staging.devenscommunity.com>