teacher of the year essay samples: Teacher By Teacher John B. King Jr., 2025-04-29 In the tradition of Lessons Learned and Cherished, a heartfelt and inspirational narrative by the U.S. Secretary of Education under the Obama administration about the teachers he learned from worked with who influenced his own groundbreaking career as an educator. Teacher By Teacher reflects the transformative power of public education. Both of Secretary King's parents were career public school educators. His dad was a teacher and administrator, and his mother was a teacher and school counselor. King's mother passed away suddenly when he was in the fourth grade, and his dad—suffering from undiagnosed Alzheimer's—passed by the time he was 12. Home was unstable and uncertain, but public school teachers never gave up on him. They made school a safe, supportive and engaging place where King could just be a kid—away from the challenges at home. While many could have seen a young Black and Puerto Rican kid whose life was in crisis and written him off, public school teachers, mentors, and a school counselor gave him a second chance. Crises can be catalysts for change. This book is about overcoming challenges, and the mentors who help us make it through them. Teacher By Teacher is a deeply personal love letter to all the teachers in our lives. But more than that, this book is about the power of mentorship, especially for those who are underserved by public institutions and social systems in America.

teacher of the year essay samples: Teacher Acculturation Edward R. Howe, 2022-03-16 This book evolved from decades of transcultural experiences. Edward Howe's comparative ethnographic narrative, a blend of narrative inquiry and reflexive ethnography, uniquely captures the essence of teacher acculturation. Each chapter is filled with intriguing teachers' stories based on lived experiences - connected through the common thread of learning to teach. Compelling teacher narratives, spanning seven decades, show that much of what teachers do is learned implicitly and is culturally embedded. Teacher Acculturation provides a window into the world of novice teachers from the 1950s through present day. The thought-provoking stories provide a springboard for critical discussions about gender/sexuality, culture/race/ethnicity, Indigenous perspectives, SES/class/religion, location/space/time, and the challenges facing teachers in different contexts. The author highlights the importance of teacher relationships, built on mutual understanding, trust, mentorship, leadership and guidance. Beginning teachers are largely required to work in isolation, to learn their practice through trial and error - left to “sink or swim.” There is little provision for mentorship and insufficient time to reflect on teaching practices. Collaborative and reflective self-study, as illustrated in Teacher Acculturation, shows great promise to ameliorate this pervasive problem in teacher induction. Thus, the book will appeal to teacher educators, teachers and to anyone interested in the fascinating lives of teachers.

State Department of Education, 1989 The second statewide direct writing assessment was conducted for grade eight by the California Assessment Program (CAP) in the spring of 1988. Each student wrote an essay in response to 1 of 45 prompts (writing tasks) representing 6 types of writing: autobiographical incident, report of information, problem solution, evaluation, story, and firsthand biography. A total of 294,859 essays were scored at 6 regional scoring sites by 384 teachers; this number includes a 5% sample of papers that was double-scored for reliability studies. Approximately 96% of the students who took the essay test comprehended the writing tasks and responded to the topic. Scores were assigned for rhetorical effectiveness, special features (such as coherence or elaboration), and conventions. Results revealed that most students wrote adequate or marginally adequate essays (62%), some wrote exceptionally well (12%), and others wrote poorly (22%). Eighth graders were most competent at reporting information, less competent at writing autobiography and firsthand biography, and least able to write a story and to produce the two kinds of persuasive writing. Also, students exhibited better control of conventions than of rhetorical strategies. Overall, students' scores increased. Recommendations for school administrators, teachers, and parents are included. (KEH)
