women in leadership podcast: Women and Politics Malliga Och, 2023-02-14 Focusing on the distinct identities and diverse lived experiences of women in a wide range of countries and cultures, this book provides a comprehensive overview of women in local, regional, and national politics around the world. Woman and Politics takes on the historical challenges women have and continue to face, and the victories they have achieved, in political cultures and structures around the world. The introduction walks readers through the key issues, pressing concerns, and foremost questions that researchers confront in their studies of women in various political roles across the globe. The remainder of the book, divided into eight chapters, covers such topics as women's suffrage, the status of women in politics today, women as national leaders, barriers to women's political representation, and others. Leading experts and emerging scholars come together in this volume to ask and provide answers to the question of why gender parity is so important in politics. They answer that only women, who as a group have a distinct identity and lived experiences that differ from men's collective identities and interests, can accurately represent themselves both at home and on the world stage.

women in leadership podcast: The First and Only Breaking Barriers, Building Futures, 2025-05-19 What happens when the world's largest democracy meets the world's most gender-equal region? Across continents and cultures, India and the Nordic countries offer powerful models for inclusive leadership, sustainable innovation, and gender-balanced progress. Together, they are shaping the future. The First and Only brings to life the untold journeys of trailblazing women, visionary organizations, and daring pioneers redefining what leadership looks like today. Inspired by the spirit of Nari Shakti—the strength of women—this book honours those who have stepped into spaces where no one looked like them before. From grassroots movements in India to boardrooms in the Nordics, their stories ignite courage, insight, and a powerful roadmap for a more just world. It is also a tribute to the men who walk beside them, as allies, mentors, and champions of change, proving that real transformation happens when we move forward together. — The First and Only: India & The Nordics - Breaking Barriers, Building Futures is a timely and vital contribution to the global conversation on gender equality and sustainable leadership. By bridging India and the Nordics, Rina Sunder presents a bold vision where inclusion, innovation, and purpose-driven leadership take center stage. Through the inspiring stories of pioneers — women who lead, men who support, and organizations that blaze new trails — this book reminds us that real change happens when courage meets collaboration across cultures and continents. —Erik Solheim, former Executive Director of the UN Environment Programme and former Norwegian Minister of Environment and International Development.

women in leadership podcast: Exploring Gender in Education in Arabian Gulf Countries Martina Dickson, 2025-06-30 This seminal volume fills a gap in current literature on education, gender, and development by giving voice to the Arab Gulf region, contrasting key issues with those felt globally in order to support a more sustainable, gender-equitable future of education in the region. Heavily linked to Sustainable Development Goal 4 – which calls for an inclusive and equitable quality of education for all – this book presents case studies on a wide range of issues such as school attainment, academic performance, and gender disparities within higher education in the Arabian Gulf, using quantitative research, qualitative interviews, and documentary analysis to make broader connections to issues of global significance. Exploring a deeper and more holistic understanding of the external factors which affect both participation and performance within education and academic settings, this book considers the influence of home support systems as well as cultural and familial factors which can lead to large-scale gendered differences in learning attitudes, attendance, and even testing, in the region. Ultimately supporting those in the education sector through frameworks of gender inclusion in both schools and higher educational settings, this volume will be of use to researchers, scholars, and postgraduate students involved with higher education, school leadership, management and administration, sociology of education, and gender studies in the Arab Gulf region more broadly.

women in leadership podcast: Handbook of Global Leadership and Followership Joan F. Marques, June Schmieder-Ramirez, Petros G. Malakyan, 2023-03-29 This handbook integrates the best leadership and followership theories and practices between the Global North-West (countries of Western individualistic cultures in Europe, North America, Australia and Oceania) and the Global South-East (countries of Eastern collectivistic cultures in Asia, Africa, South America, and South-East Asian and Oceania). There is a need to bring the Global North-West and the Global South-East together to address global challenges such as the climate change, global hunger and poverty, domestic and international terrorism, social justice, gender inequality, and domestic and global abuse of human and natural resources. This innovative volume proposes that the democratic leadership of the Global North-West and the human-centered followership of the Global South-East can transform the world if leadership and followership values, education, and practices are integrated. It utilizes findings from positive psychology, social psychology, organizational behavior, and world religions and contemplative wisdom traditions to highlight the case for global leadership and followership.

women in leadership podcast: Journeys of Women Leaders Pushing Boundaries in Asia and Healthcare Marion Neubronner, Anh Bourcet Nguyen, 2024-04-22 This book brings together a collective of Women Leaders in Healthcare to share their real-life leadership journey in the Asian continent, from a personal angle (heart) and grounded on science (data). They are connected by a strong passion to help improve patient lives and advance women’s leadership in this dynamic, emerging region of Asia, still swaying between tradition and modernity. This is not an academic book but a compendium of inspirational stories meant to provide authentic and pragmatic guidance for women who want to advance their careers in healthcare in Asia, to reduce gender inequality and give a new meaning to the leadership of tomorrow, truly inclusive and diverse. Beyond gender, aspiring leaders can find inspiration from this compendium to succeed in the Asia context, from Japan to India, South East Asia and the Middle East. Although the challenges shared were experienced by the women-authors from diverse backgrounds and leadership, women and men alike can relate to many of the topics covered in the book. The resulting reflections can help the readers more efficiently climb the corporate ladder and become better leaders, to shape a more equitable future. This book provides insights for organizations in their diversity, equity and inclusion endeavors, to develop policies that foster talents in Asia and provide better support to women in leadership positions. It is also a useful read for students and researchers of leadership and gender studies.
